Dear Friends,

It has been a great pleasure for us to host all of you in Helsinki. The remarkable performances with the extraordinary atmosphere in the rink have made this event truly unforgettable. Skaters, your performances have moved us all and the participative audience played their role perfectly.

We organizers have put our hearts to preparing this event but it still surprised us what a sensational feeling the dialogue between the performers and the audience created. We all lived through the touching moments with the Japanese team, the audience's rhythmic clapping to all performances, the totally charged silence before judges marks went on and the outburst of the team's fans, which almost brought the rink roof down.

We are very pleased and honored that we had the change to host this event and share with you our passion. We sincerely hope you have felt our enthusiasm about the sport, enjoyed your stay in Helsinki and you will take home fond memories. Hopefully this event charged you with lots of positive energy to drive forward this spectacular sport in your country.

We are also extremely glad that the ISU council planned their schedules so that they could experience this event and see what great potential this fairly new sport in the ISU family has.

Finally we wish you a pleasant and safe journey home. Looking forward to seeing you next year in Sweden.

Susanna Rahkamo

President of the Finnish Figure Skating Association
